Mobilitas expands to Kuwait under AGS standard

Kuwait City, Kuwait – September 11, 2024 - The Mobilitas Group, a leading provider of removals, records management, relocation, and heritage conservation services, has officially opened its doors in Kuwait under its AGS brand. The expansion forms part of the conglomerate's regional strategy to cater to the entire Gulf Peninsula.

The newly established AGS Kuwait aims to better serve regional clients with operations across multiple states. It will also support the growing number of international businesses looking to set up operations in the country.

"Since opening our doors in Dubai in 2011, our objective has been to establish a robust presence in the Gulf peninsula, and we eagerly anticipate fostering enduring partnerships within the Kuwaiti business community in the years to come."

Cedric Castro – CEO of The Mobilitas Group

Leading operations for AGS Kuwait is seasoned removals expert Suman Prasai, who brings over 15 years of industry experience gained in Kuwait and Qatar, ensuring a seamless customer experience tailored to the region's unique needs.

Alongside mobility services, Mobilitas aims to utilise its presence to help conserve Kuwait's many cultural and architectural treasures. "Kuwait possesses a rich and tangible heritage spanning millennia. It would be a privilege for us to help conserve this legacy for future generations through our heritage solutions," Castro said.

The country joins Abu Dhabi, Bahrain, Oman, and Qatar as the sixth Gulf nation and the 103rd country worldwide to welcome the Mobilitas Group. Plans are underway to launch operations in Saudi Arabia in 2025.

About Mobilitas

Founded in 1974 and now managed by the third generation of the Taïeb and Castro families, the MOBILITAS Group is a mid-sized company specialising in removal and relocation services, physical and digital records management, and the digital preservation of heritage.

The group, which is present in 103 countries and employs more than 5,500 people, relies on its own network on the one hand and its exclusive agents, on the other hand, to offer its customers unparalleled service in all its sectors of activity.

The group's long-term vision reflects its philosophy and culture that guide its major entrepreneurial and investment decisions. Decisions that regularly shape and strengthen the group leading it towards new processes, new businesses, and new horizons.
